BOARD OF EDUCATION

To keep the schools of Greenville operating efficiently is the purpose and desire of the Board of Education. It is its duty to aid in the selection of teachers, textbooks and courses of study and to supervise the care of the grounds and the maintenance of buildings that make-up the public school system.

The members are elected on a non-partisan ticket. Mr. Robert Coppess, Mr. Sheldon Vannoy, Mr. Howard Eley and Mr. Robert Henderson were the elected members that served this year. Also on the Board is Mr. C. L. Bailey who, as superintendent of city schools, is automatically a member. Mr. Robert Kolp served as clerk.

This group is composed of an active group of business men who are interested in the progress and welfare of the city public school system and function as a unit in considering the best interests of the schools.

Through the continual and sincere efforts of this Board the scholastic rankings of Greenville schools are maintained.

SUPERINTENDENT

MR. C. L. BAILEY was graduated from Otterbein college where he earned his Bachelor of Arts degree. Later he received his Master of Arts degree from Miami University.

Mr. Bailey has been associated with the Greenville public schools for the past thirty years. After serving two years as a science teacher in the high school he was made principal and a few years later became superintendent of the city's public school system.

As superintendent, Mr. Bailey is automatically a member of the Board of Education and is now also chairman of the committee which is investigating the physical needs of the local schools.

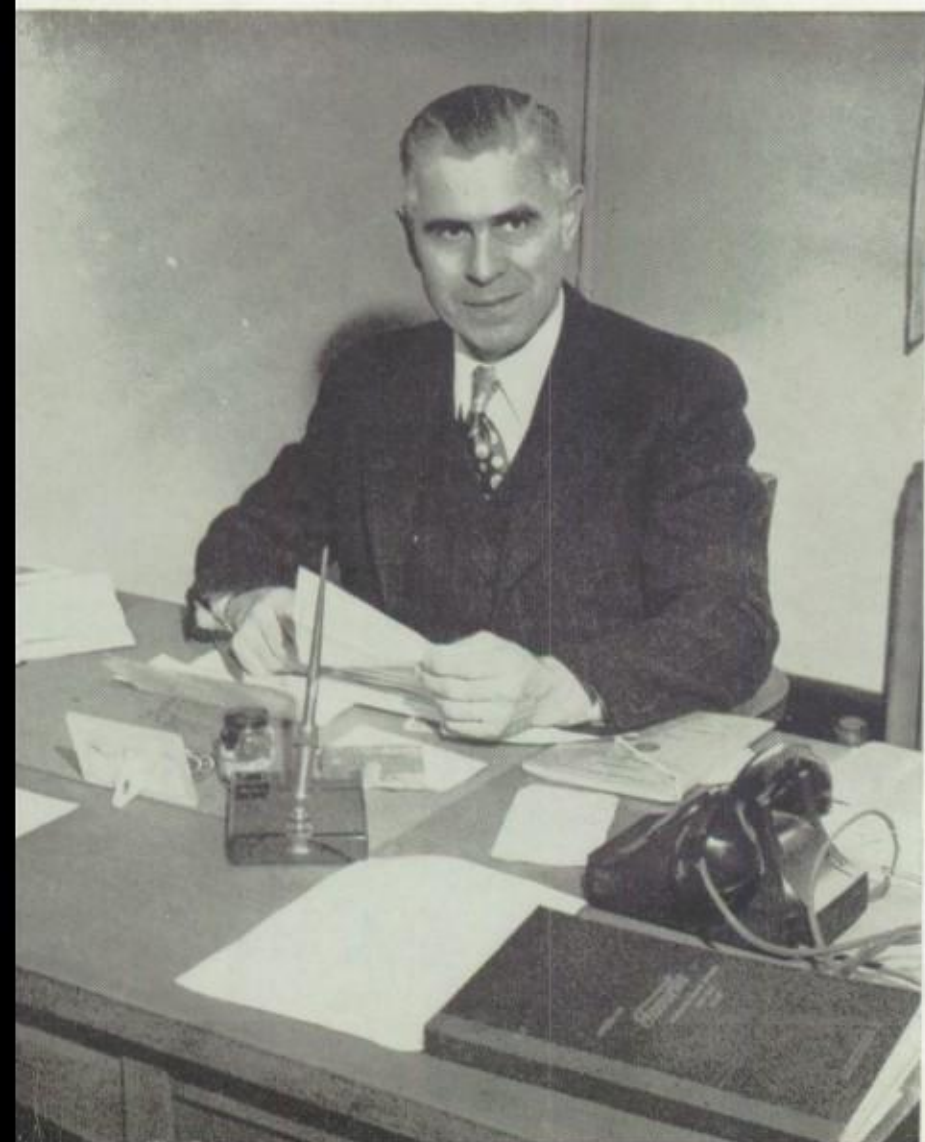

PRINCIPAL

MR. PAUL C. WARNER has served as principal of Greenville high school for the last nineteen years. Before his appointment to this position he was an instructor in academic subjects in G. H. S. for nine years.

A graduate of Greenville high school, Mr. Warner received his Bachelor of Science degree from Ohio State university in 1918. In 1931 he gained his Master of Arts degree from Miami University.

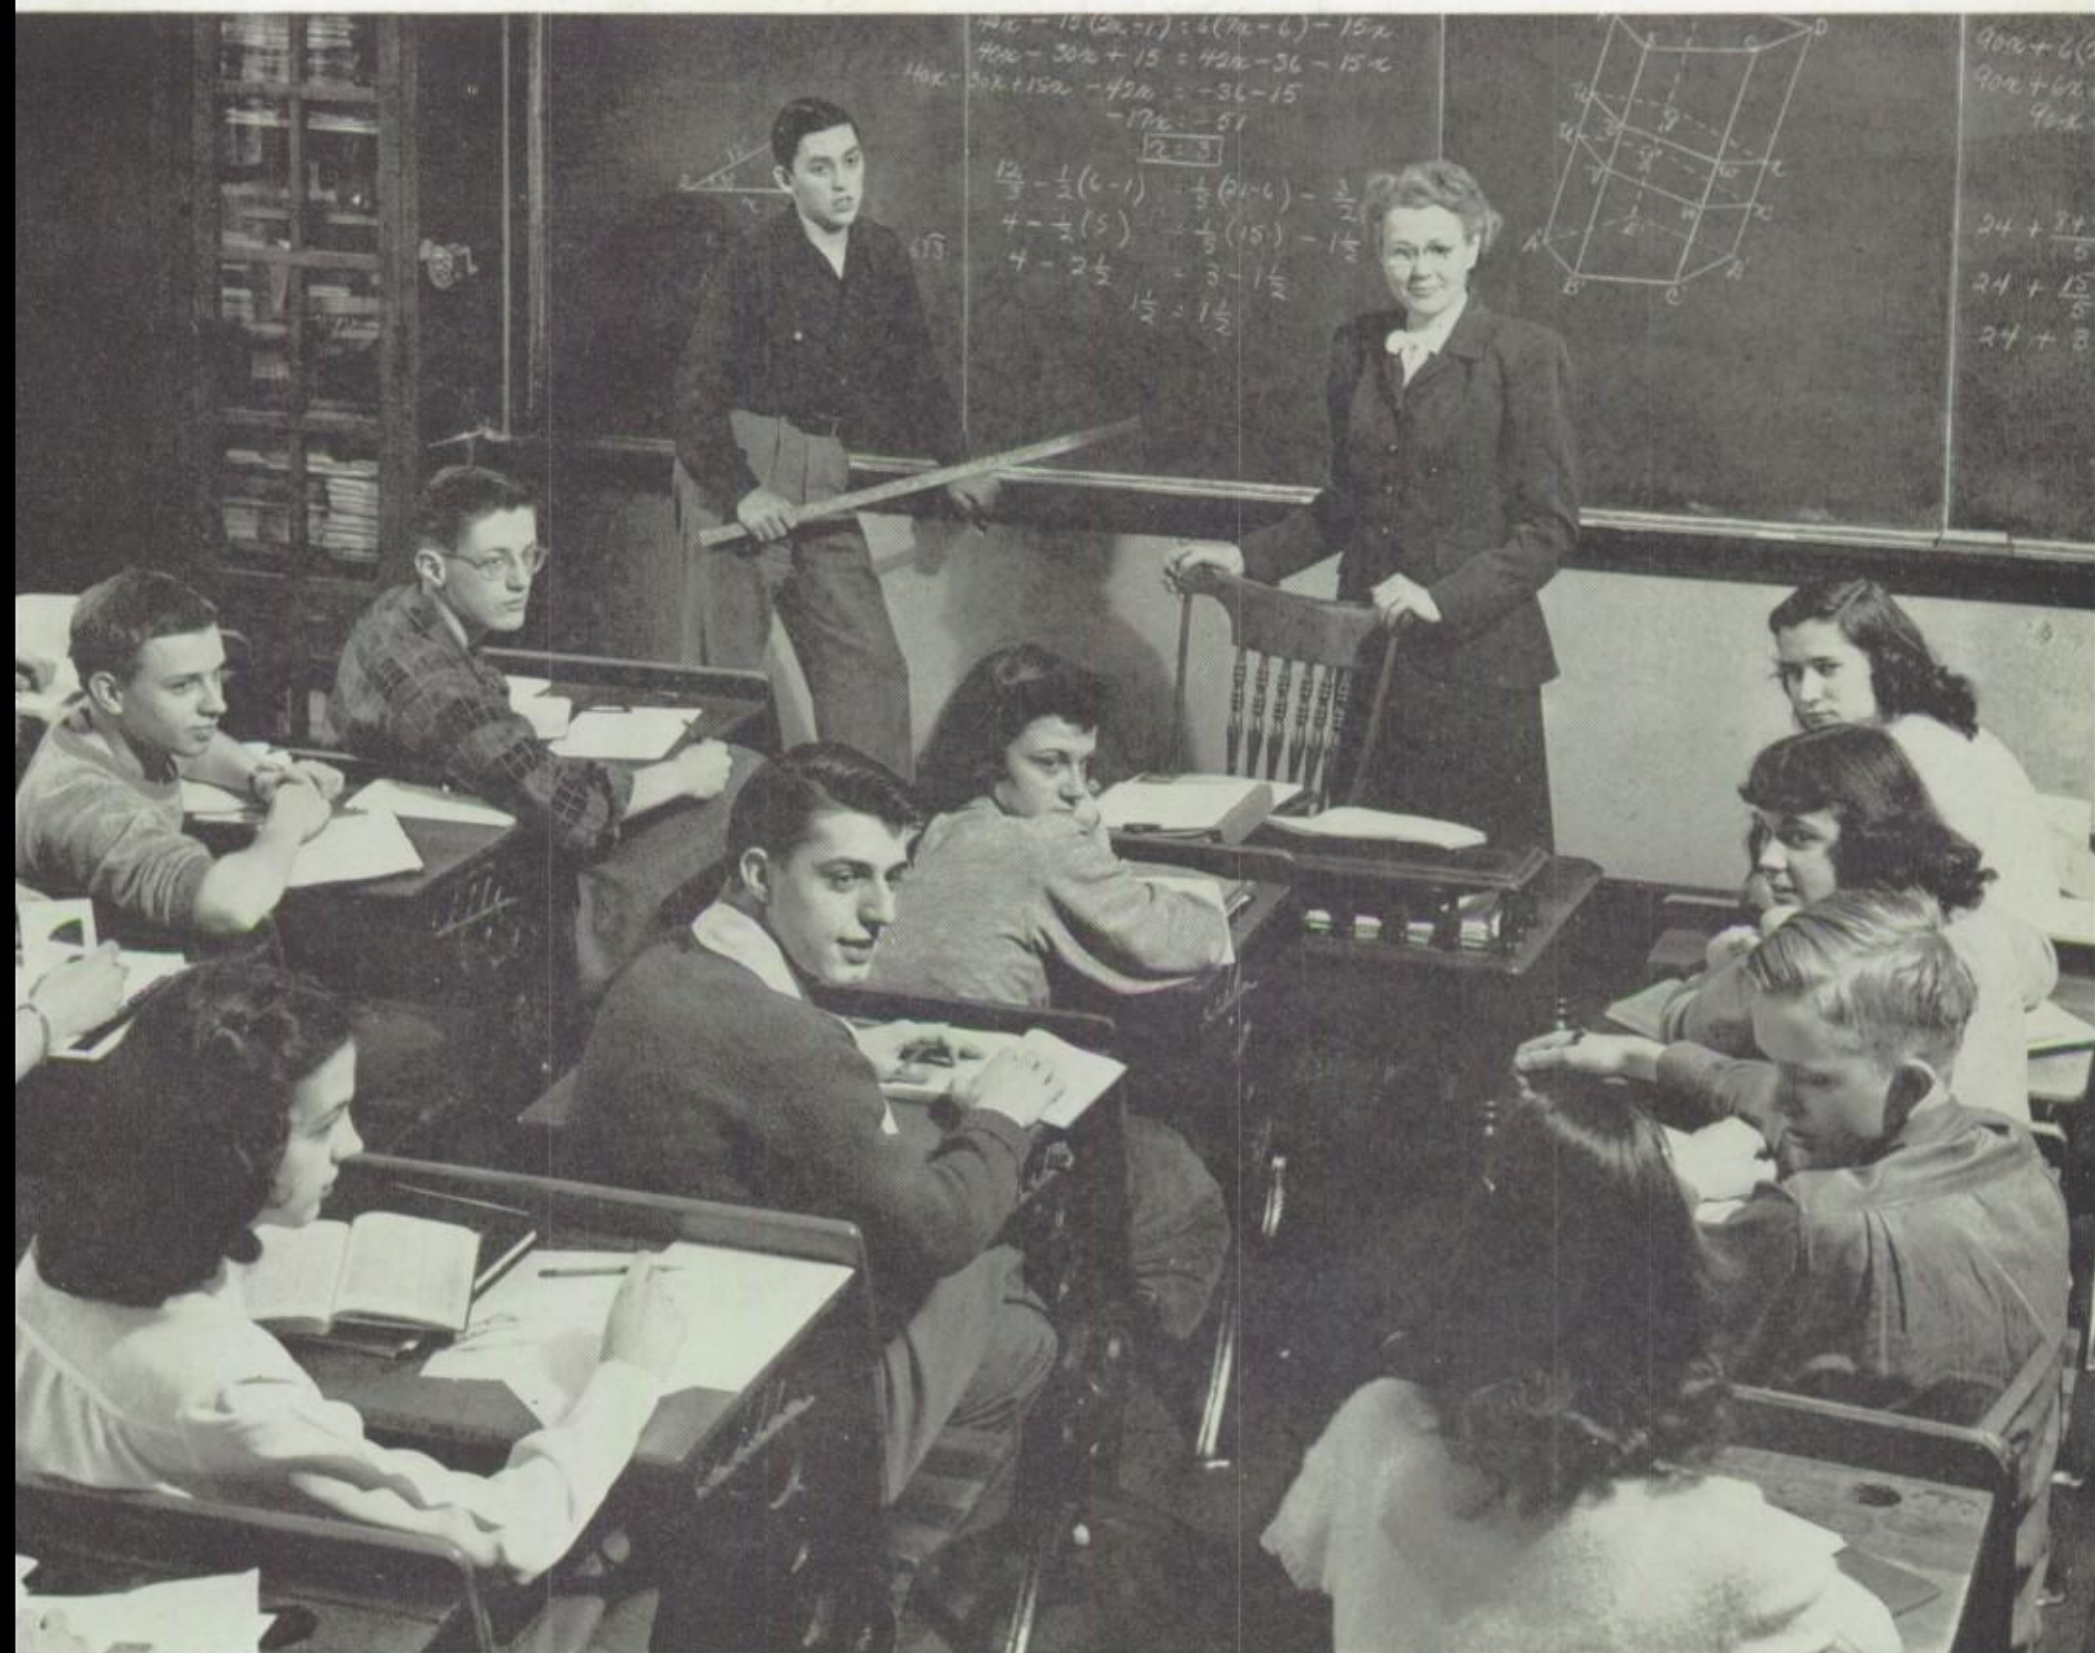

In May, 1948, Mr. Warner sponsored a trip to Washington, D. C., that enabled three hundred people from Darke county to visit the nation's capital. This fine opportunity was of exceptional value to the many students who were able to go.

English

Due to its importance, the study of English is stressed in all school years. The attention given to this course is equally divided between establishing grammatical rules for correct usage and the study of literature produced by writers of the various ages.

Through the school years the course of mathematics develops the fundamental platform from which the students may step with ease into various professions and may compete in the economic system.

Mathematics

Cooking Department

The cooking unit of the home economics department is used by the boys' chef class, the senior girls' cooking class and the eighth grade girls besides those enrolled in the regular home ec course.

The boys' and senior girls' courses include studies on home and family life, personal and social relationships, consumer buying, modern living, child development and food preparation.

Art

(Right above)—Students of art learn to beautify their surroundings with color and lines but soon come to the realization that Nature holds the supreme paint-brush.

Music

(Right below)—The students feel the urge to make music and give vent to this desire in the various choral groups, the band and the orchestra.

Science

Desiring to know the "how" and "why" of the universe, students have the choice of delving further into nature, the various elements, forms of machines and the mysteries of electricity.

Geography

Geography taught to students while in junior high enlightens them concerning the earth's surface, its climate, the distribution of varied plant life, and where and how its many inhabitants live.

Greenville High School offers three foreign languages—Latin, German, and Spanish. In these courses the students learn the origins of many English words and how the various nationalities live. The students, then having a better understanding of these people, are able to advance solutions to the problems of the world.

The picture shown is of a Spanish classroom scene. In this course the classes use a recording machine on which are played Spanish records. Each student has a printed text in Spanish of what is on the records and as they are played the students follow the text and repeat each sentence, imitating the voice on the record.

When the recording is finished, questions, based on the material just heard, are asked and answered in Spanish.

Language

Commercial

Of the procedures used in the business world, one, typing, being universally accepted due to its speed and accuracy, is mastered by many students.

Mechanical Drawing

A sense of extreme accuracy is instilled in those studying mechanical drawing as it is an essential attribute in producing correct and usable drawings.

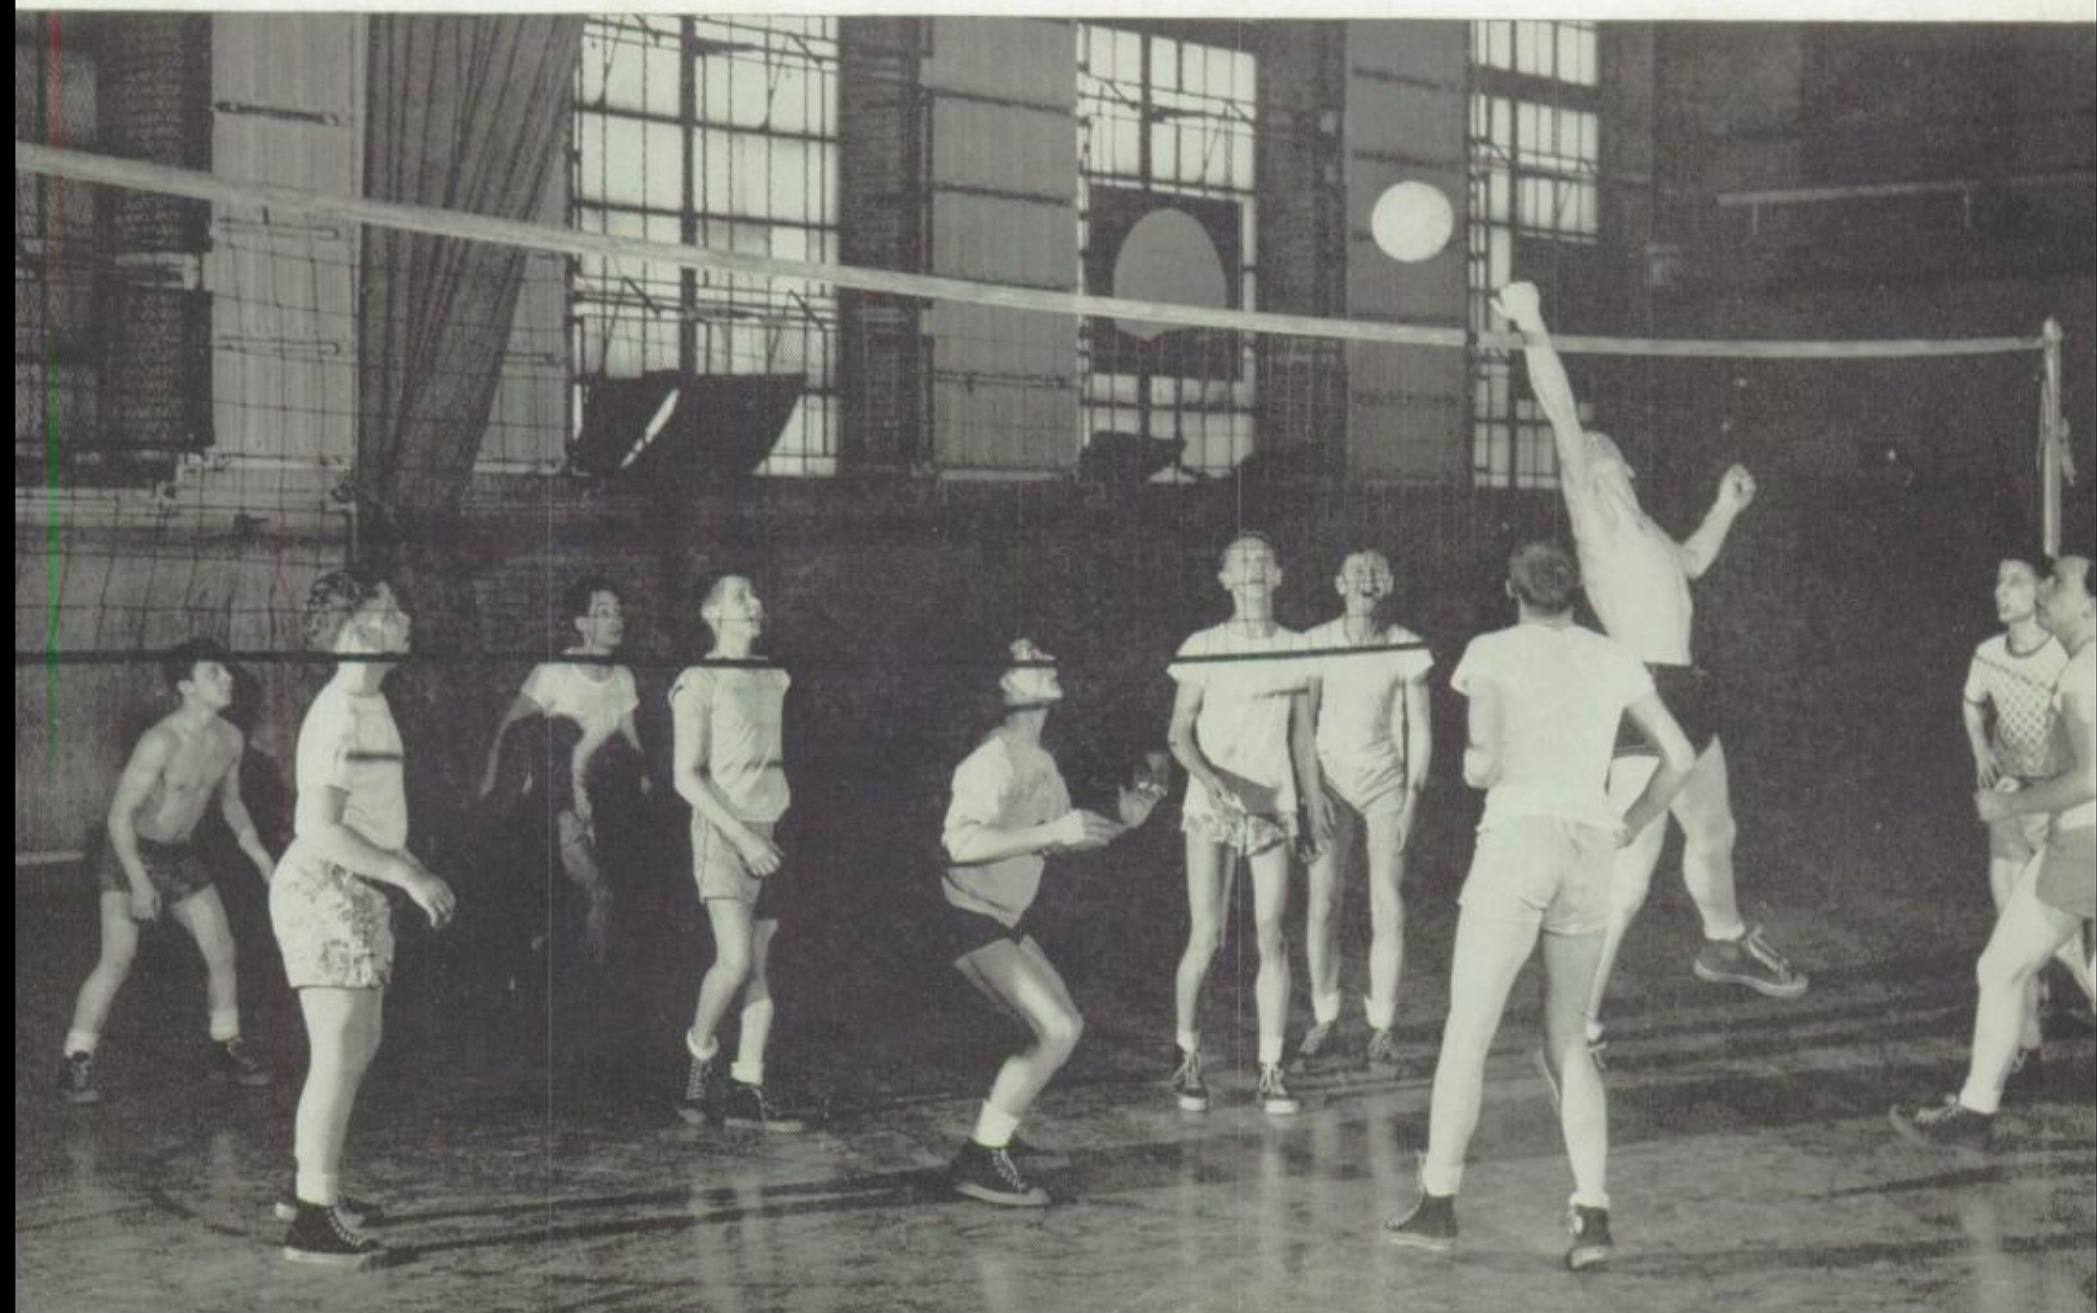

Physical

Physical education for girls creates an interest in all sports and establishes good sportsmanship. The sophomore course is supplemented with training in first-aid while freshmen study hygiene for one semester.

Education

Athletics, being one of the uppermost interests to all boys, is advanced and actively participated in during the school years. This course also includes a study of first-aid and hygiene.

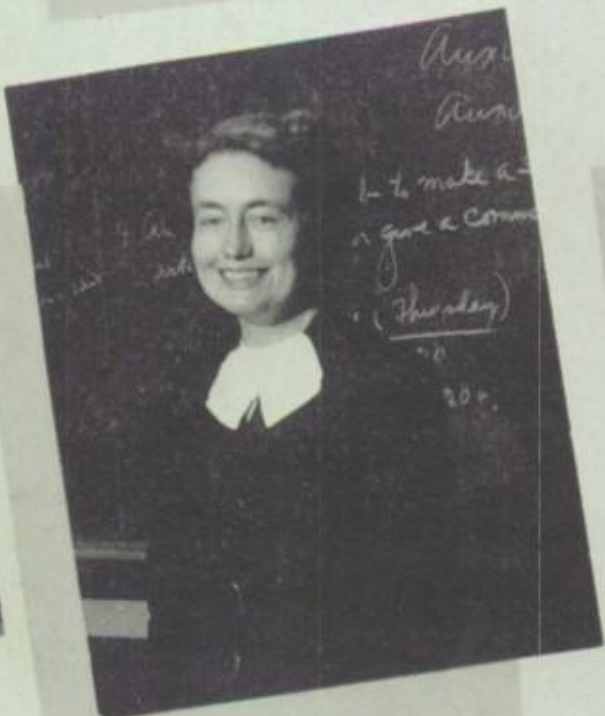

Library

The Carnegie Library, due to its abundant supply of books and its ideal location on the campus, affords an excellent source for additional classroom information and provides a storehouse from which to choose literary works for book reports.

In 1945 plans were made for a county bookmobile. In December, 1947, a traveling library that could carry approximately 2,000 books was presented by the American Aggregates Corporation. Every three weeks this bookmobile visits schools in the county.

The Senior Class

Although the TIME does not seem so long ago that the class of '48 walked into the high school building for the first time, four long years have passed away. Like all other beginners, the class started as "green" freshmen but soon caught the spirit of G. H. S. and, becoming better acquainted with the school system, began to show progress. In October Dick Faulkner was elected class president with Ned Rhoades, vice-president; Jo Ann Sharp, secretary; Phyllis Miller, treasurer and Pat O'Brien, reporter. Miss Alexander was class adviser.

With its leaders chosen the class began to plan for the various activities which that year included the traditional pep rally and bonfire before the Piqua football game; a class party, "The Cherry Frolic" and bulletin board projects. Also a staff was elected to produce a handbook which contained helpful information for students entering G. H. S. the next year as freshmen.

The following year Harvey Dunlap headed the class as president. The other officers were Charles Rentz, vice-president; Joan Baker, secretary-treasurer and Jack Corle, reporter. Mr. Stoltz was elected class adviser.

The social high light of the year was the class party, "The Lost Weekend," a very informal affair that consisted of a scavenger hunt with prizes for the winners, various other games and a good supply of food. That year also the sophomores were permitted to choose either class rings or pins.

The junior year centered around the sponsorship of two very important events, the class play and the Junior-Senior Prom. Realizing the significance of these affairs the class chose Marline Spille to lead them as president. Those who assisted her were Charles Rentz, vice-president; Jo Ann Sharp, secretary; Shirley Stebbins, treasurer and Ted Grote, reporter. Mr. Raudabaugh was elected to advise the class.

The class play, "Love Your Neighbor," was presented March 20 and 21. This farce comedy was directed by Miss Deeter. When one of the members of the cast became ill on the eve of the first performance Miss Deeter very ably took the part.

The pavilion in the city park was decorated and became the scene for the formal dance that climaxed the school year. It was held May 26 with Harry "Jack" Walton and his orchestra.

After the election of the Annual staff the class began the traditional magazine drive to help raise money for the yearbook. Two outstanding records were made this year in this drive when one hundred per cent of the class registered sales and when the goal of twenty-five hundred dollars in sales was nearly gained. Additional funds for the yearbook were obtained through the sponsorship of the concession stands at the county basketball tournaments.

The Junior Class

In its freshman year the class of '49 endured traditional initiation pranks and began the duty of electing class officers. Bill Hile was elected president; Dick Canan, vice-president; Sussanne Murphy, secretary; Jim Gray, treasurer and Jean Bayman, reporter. These officers with Miss Alexander, class adviser, presented "The Forty-Niners' Festival," a party based on the theme of the 1849 gold rush.

As sophomores the class again selected Bill Hile to lead them. The other officers were: Eddie Whitmore, vice-president; Rita Ottman, secretary-treasurer and Jean Bayman, reporter. Mr. Stoltz was chosen class adviser.

This year Bill Dunlap triumphed as class president with Bill Townsend, vice-president; Sue Ungericht, secretary; Jo Ann Fenstermaker, treasurer and Amy Lou Snyder, reporter. Miss Boyer was appointed class adviser.

The class play was directed by Miss Deeter. The Junior-Senior prom climaxed the year on May 24.

At the coronation ceremony held March 31 in which Mr. and Miss G. H. S. were crowned, Mike Randall was elected to represent the junior high boys as an attendant in the court of honor.

Each of the four class sections also organized as clubs, choosing names and electing officers. Much of the class business, as well as informative programs, was carried out through these sectional clubs.

When the king and queen of Greenville high school were crowned on March 31, the seventh grade was proud to have one of its members, Sally Hole, included in the court of honor.

The social highlight of the year was the class party, "April Showers," held in the cafeteria in April. April also included another exciting event, the WHIO spelling contest, which took place in Dayton April 10.

National Honor Society

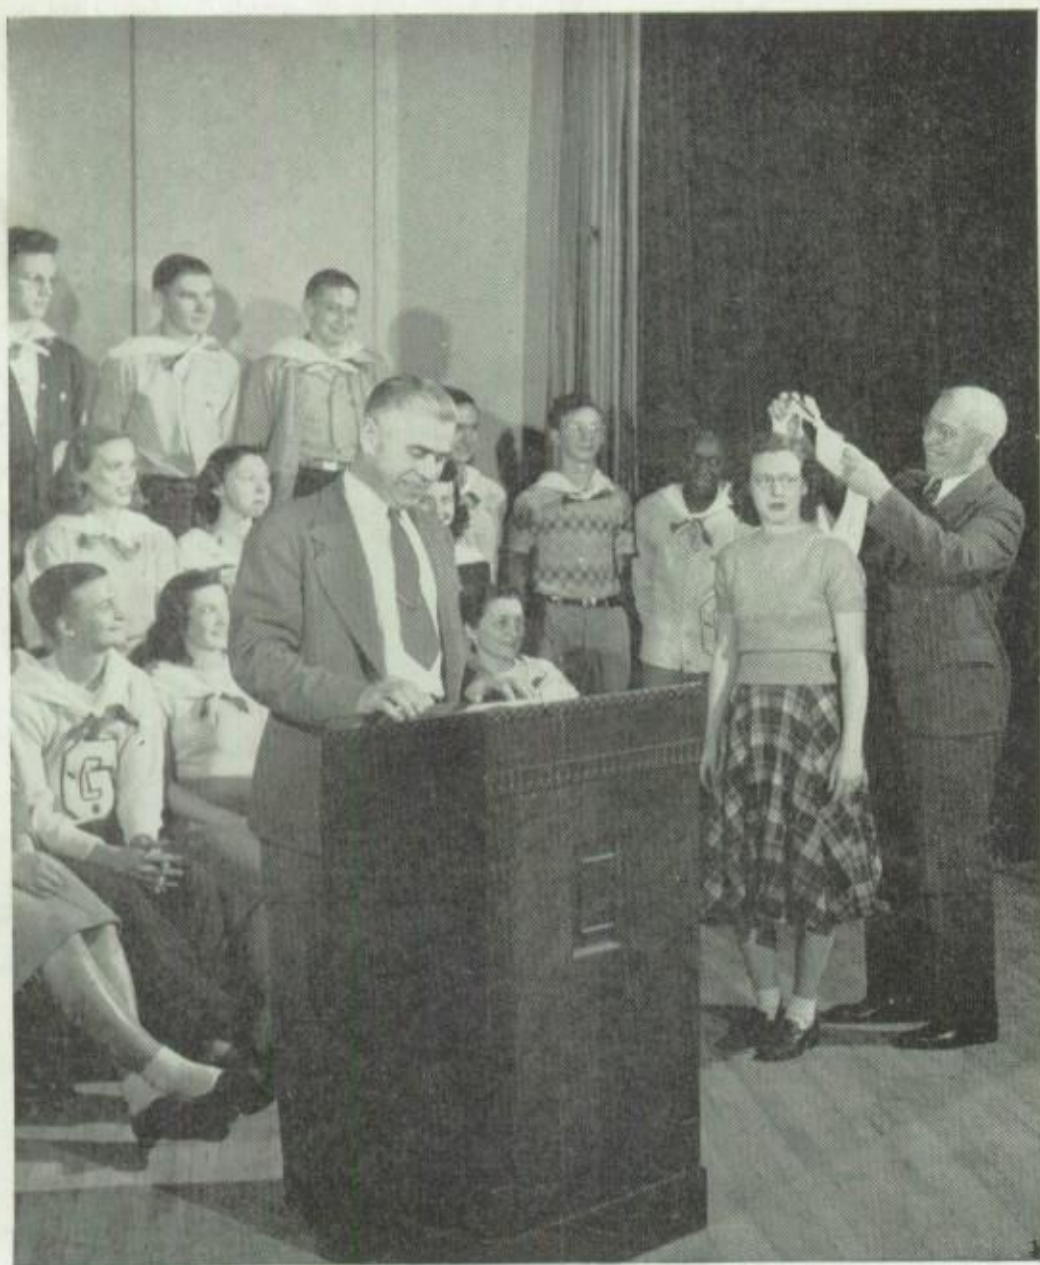

Each year juniors and seniors are initiated into the National Honor Society.

The students to be so honored are selected by the faculty for the following merits: scholarship, leadership, service to school and community and character. The student must rank scholastically in the upper fourth of his class.

The candidates are escorted by members of the faculty to the stage where Superintendent C. L. Bailey places the National Honor Society cowls on the shoulders of the new members. Principal Paul C. Warner then presents them with the club pin. Parents of the students "tapped" are invited to witness the ceremony.

Throughout the service Miss Hill plays the "Green and White" on the organ.

Mr. Robert Wilkinson of Van Wert, a former Ohio legislator, was the guest speaker for this year's ceremony. His topic, "Success," was very fitting for this achievement recognition program.

THE purpose of the ushers of Greenville high school is to conduct people to their reserved seats at such public performances as plays, concerts and other functions conducted in the Memorial hall.

The first group was formed in 1912 and consisted of boys. Since that time, however, girls have been given the honor of serving the school in this manner.

The ushers are a group composed of the thirteen girls having the highest scholastic standings in their class at the end of their third year in high school. These girls begin their term as ushers by serving at baccalaureate and commencement exercises at the end of their junior year. They in turn are replaced just before their graduation ceremonies begin.

Among the activities of the club is an annual banquet, open to the public, held in observance of Ohio Latin week. During the basketball season the "Romans" sponsor two check rooms.

The purpose of the organization is to promote interest in the Latin department of the high school.

The officers for this year were Carolyn Jefferis, president; Kay Lephart, vice-president; Helen Louise Blanchard, secretary-treasurer and Martha Bowman, reporter. Miss Etter, Latin instructor, served as club adviser.

THE German club of Greenville high school was originated as the Schiller Verein before 1918 under Professor Frederick Roehm. It was discontinued during both world wars and was reorganized in the fall of 1947 under the supervision of Mr. Oliver, present G. H. S. German instructor.

The club aims are: to learn of and appreciate the contributions of Germany to the world especially in the fields of music and science and to obtain more practice in spoken German by giving plays, singing and conducting parliamentary drill in German.

Only second year students are admitted to the club. Officers are elected each semester and those serving the first half of the year were: Jim Patton, president; Jack Weybright, vice-president; Kay Deeter, secretary-treasurer and Pat Gerhartz, reporter.

Second semester officers were: Joan Baker, president; Jack Weybright, vice-president; Pat Eisler, secretary-treasurer and Bob Goodrich, reporter.

Any student who is taking or has completed second year Spanish may become a member of the Spanish club of Greenville high school. This organization, being founded in 1918, is the oldest in G. H. S.

The emblem of La Sociedad Castellana is a figure of a lion embossed on the face of a Spanish castle.

The purposes of the club are to learn about the customs of Spanish speaking people and to popularize the study of Spanish in this country.

The year's project is collecting sales tax stamps to finance the purchasing of records, song books and other books.

The social events are the banquet at which Spanish foods are served and the picnic at the end of the year.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The Future Farmers of America organization of Greenville high school was formed in 1929 and received its charter in November of that year. It is composed only of students enrolled in vocational agriculture.

The club has had several projects this year, one of them being a scrap drive through which money was raised to finance the annual parent and son night and the pest war prizes. This latter project, the pest war, is a means by which the boys may win prizes for eliminating various animals that are a menace to farm life.

Also, a basketball team composed of club members played various local teams and county F. F. A. school teams.

The cabinet members for this year were as follows: Walter Neal, president; Duane Gilbert, vice-president; Gene Young, secretary; Dale Cox, treasurer; E. J. Byram, reporter; Raymond Jay, sentinel, Don Ross, class adviser and Mr. Glunt, agriculture instructor, was club adviser.

FAUNA AND FLORA SOCIETY

In 1936 the Fauna and Flora society was established in Greenville high school under the guidance of Miss Deeter, biology instructor.

The outstanding project of this organization is the maintenance of an acre of ground situated on Mr. Warner's farm and donated by him to further the club's purpose of stimulating more school interest in the out-of-doors.

This year the society prepared the inner court of the high school building for the planting of grass and flowers, some of the latter being arranged to bloom in the form of "Fauna Flora, G. H. S."

The club also sponsored a dance, "Hearts in Harmony" following the Fairmont basketball game.

The officers for 1947-48 were Tom O'Brien, president; Lloyd Prasuhn, vice-president; Bill Hile, secretary; Ned Rhoades, treasurer and June Stoddard, reporter. Bill Dunlap, Thelma Mowery and Dale Cashman completed the cabinet.

REPORTERS

The G. H. S. Advocate is produced by the REPORTERS' CLUB and appears weekly in the Greenville Daily Advocate. Every six weeks the G. H. S. Mirror is compiled and sold to the students.

The second semester staff, whose members were selected from those who worked during the first half-year, was composed of Marline Spille, editor; Jean Bayman, assistant editor; Ardyce Vannoy, associate editor; Rod Underwood, sports editor; Janice Rismiller, filler editor and Janet Elikar, exchange editor. The typists were Phyllis Beisner, Leona Shahan, Jo Ann Sharp and Rosemary Neff.

Upperclassmen reporters who rank scholastically in the upper third of their class, have done work worthy of recommendation of the local journalism instructor and have been accepted by the executive secretary of the QUILL AND SCROLL may become members of this national honor society. This organization is for high school journalists in the newspaper and yearbook fields.

HI-Y

The National Hi-Y organization, which was established fifty-eight years ago, is a branch of the Young Men's Christian association. As Greenville is without a Y. M. C. A. group, the local Hi-Y functions entirely as a school activity. It strives to encourage its members to take an active part in worthy school and community affairs.

Each year the club sends two boys to the summer camp at Camp Nelson Dodd and sends representatives to district and state conferences.

During 1947-48 the Hi-Y furnished printed programs for home football and basketball contests and sold pencils on which were printed the athletic schedules.

On March 28 the club concurred with the local Y-Teens to present an Easter sunrise service.

Dick Faulkner served as president this year. The other officers were: Ned Rhoades, vice-president; John Brumbaugh, secretary; Jack Brandt, treasurer and Ted Grote, reporter. Mr. Detling was club adviser.

Y-Teens Officers

The Y-Teens, a branch of the Young Women's Christian Association, was formed to promote high school girls to offer service to the school and community.

The club is divided into groups, each of which is responsible for one meeting's program. The organization meets the fourth Thursday of each school month.

Annual club activities include an open-air Easter sunrise service conducted with the cooperation of the Greenville high school Hi-Y organization, a recognition service for new members and a senior farewell tea. This year the club also met several times with the Y. W. C. A. to conduct panel discussions.

Members of the 1947-48 cabinet were: Joan Baker, president; Ardyce Vannoy, vice-president; Nancy Boli, secretary; Lorna Crawford, treasurer; Sallie Eidson, reporter; Mary Tester, service chairman; Jean Staley, social chairman; Kay Deeter, publicity chairman; Carolyn Brown, music chairman; Janet Elikor, program chairman and Miss Day, club adviser.

ORCHESTRA

The orchestra of Greenville High School affords a means of instilling music appreciation in both the players and the listeners. In order to attain this goal the players are introduced to a study of instrumentation and good repertoire.

This body also serves as an opportunity for the music students to explore the instrumental world and learn the various possibilities each agent may render in a composition.

The orchestra provides one of the best possible chances to gain true musical experience by working with the various instruments which this year include violins, viola, cellos, bass, flute, clarinets, trumpets, cornets, trombones and drums.

This organization also provides wholesome social experience which for some is of as great a value as the contiguous musical experience.

This group practices the last period on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Once a week the various instrumental sections meet with the director for additional and more specialized practice.

The orchestra this year played in the yearly December concert and for the Annual and all class plays.

"Oh, a wonderful stream is the river Time,
With a faultless rhythm and a musical rhyme."

A CAPELLA CHOIR

The A Cappella choir of Greenville High School is composed of boys and girls from the sophomore, junior and senior classes. Miss Elizabeth Hill, director of the choir, selects the members from her various vocal classes. The aim of this organization is to further the appreciation of music among the students of G. H. S.

Choir members are selected for exceptional musical talent and interest and thus constitute the school's outstanding vocal unit. They meet every day the fifth hour for practice. Selections studied include classics, Negro spirituals and popular compositions.

This select group participates in a program that is presented annually to the public. This performance includes all phases of high school music.

It is customary for the choir to sing before the Kiwanis and Rotary clubs at one of their weekly luncheons.

The A Cappella is largely responsible for the musical productions each spring, "People of Note" being the one presented this year.

The final public performance of the school year is submitted at the baccalaureate service. Just prior to this new members are brought into the choir to replace those seniors who are graduating.

"Upon my lips the breath of song,
 Within my heart a rhyme,
 How'er time trips or lags along,
 I keep abreast with time!"—Scollard

MAJORETTES

Featured performers of the band are the majorettes. These girls add a dash of color and spirited action that requires many hours of diligent practice to perfect. They are instructed and guided by Mr. Brown.

These girls who led the band in 1947-48 were Marilyn Stocker, drum majorette; Jane Niederkorn, Irene Beaty, Priscilla Martin, majorettes and Janice Knick, flag twirler.

Although this year's band contained the largest number of young musicians ever assembled in a Greenville high school band, it made a fine and colorful appearance at all football and home basketball games.

The main objectives of the G. H. S. band are to play for appreciation and enjoyment of the public, to perform good music artistically, and to learn and to put into practice the fundamentals of marching band technique.

One of the greatest achievements of the band in 1947-48 was the organization of a Band Boosters club composed of the band members' parents. This club was originated in order to help finance new uniforms and other equipment for the band.

This year also, Greenville was host to the Western Ohio Sixteenth Annual May Band festival.

Officers of the 1947-48 band was Rodman Underwood, president; John Brumbaugh, vice-president and Amy Lou Snyder, secretary-treasurer.

"Mr. and Miss G. H. S."

Each year the Girls' Athletic association sponsors a coronation ceremony in which "Mr. and Miss G. H. S." are crowned. These two people are seniors chosen by their fellow classmates. The court of honor is composed of a boy and girl from the junior, sophomore, freshman classes and junior high. These are likewise chosen by members of the respective classes.

Charles Rentz and Carolyn Brown were selected to reign in 1947-48.

STAGE CREW

The stage crew, consisting of five boys, works backstage for all events that take place on the platform of the Memorial hall.

The duties of these boys include the manipulation of the lighting equipment and the arrangement of scenery.

Upon the completion of four years work with this group, the boys are rewarded with "G's". The two seniors, Jim Canan and Dick Faulkner, received their letters this last year.

Tom O'Brien, Bob Coppess and Dick Eller were the other members of this crew in 1947-48.

"Spring Fever"

On November 20 and 21 the Annual play, "Spring Fever," was presented in the Memorial hall. It was directed by Mr. J. E. Oliver.

This play is sponsored by the annual staff; the proceeds from it are always used to help finance the yearbook.

ATHLETIC BOARD OF CONTROL

The Athletic Board of Control in Greenville High School is composed of Mr. Warner, principal, who serves as chairman; Mr. Raymond Swope, Mr. Jack Raudabaugh, Mr. Jack Browning and Mr. Ralph Raach, the coaches and Mr. Edwin Stoltz, faculty manager.

The students are represented on the board by John Brumbaugh, senior; Dick Canan, junior and Vanis Lephart, senior, who also serves as secretary for the organization. These students are elected by secret ballot by both the junior and senior high school departments. It is customary for the boy elected as junior representative to continue on the board the following year as senior delegate. The secretary is always chosen as a senior.

It is the duty of this group to: regulate the price of admission for the various athletic events, purchase uniforms and equipment and ratify all athletic rewards made by the coaches.

By withholding a small percentage of gate receipts the board is able to maintain a fund which is used to pay for the medical treatment required for players injured while participating in the diverse sport events.

VARSITY "G" ASSOCIATION

The Varsity "G" Association of Greenville High School is an honorary organization composed only of boys that have won athletic letters.

A boy is rewarded with a "G" after fulfilling specific requirements as player or manager in any of the sports participated in by G. H. S.

The club sponsors a refreshment stand at the football games and with the money thus earned entertains with a banquet for all present and former members.

Charles Rentz served as president in 1947-48, with Jim Canan, vice-president and Jack Brandt, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Metzger, founder of the club, served as faculty adviser.

FOOTBALL

Greenville high school's football team had a successful season, winning five games and losing four.

Probably the most exciting and hard fought game was the season's final at Fairmont. The Dragons of Fairmont were ahead 7-0 at the half but the fighting Green Wave won in the final seconds of the game, 13-7.

The varsity and reserve teams are coached by Mr. Swope and his assistants, Mr. Raudabaugh and Mr. Browning.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

This year's Green Wave basketball team finished a hard season of sixteen games with six wins and ten losses. Graduation took five of the regular squad leaving most of next year's team to be recruited from the reserves. The Green Wave has had the privilege of playing three of the four State basketball finalists this season. Win or lose, this team has given hundreds of fans more than their money's worth of good, clean basketball. Seven boys received varsity basketball awards this year.

Under the expert guidance and training of Jack Raudabaugh, they have shown excellent promise for next year. They came through a tough schedule this season winning eight out of fifteen games. With most of the positions on the first team left open by graduation, the determination of these boys to fill those coveted positions should give basketball fans plenty of thrills in the coming season.

SPRING SPORTS

THE baseball team was trained by Mr. Swope in the spring of 1948. Due to the inconstancy of the weather the number of games played is usually limited. The league and district tournaments are the high lights of the season.

Track, a sport which is based completely on individual ability, was coached by Mr. Browning.

Boys participating in tennis are instructed by Mr. Oliver. The important match of the season is the Miami valley league meet.

The Time Has Come - - -

"The inaudible and noiseless foot of Time" has crept behind us and is now gently pushing us out into the world with the advice to "Be ruled by time, the wisest counselor of all."

As we begin our roles as citizens of the world we must remember that "The time God allots to each one of us is like a precious tissue which we embroider as we best know how."

But, "Like as the waves make towards the pebbled shore, so do our minutes hasten to their end" and we find that

"Now is the hour for us to say goodbye."

—Maori Chant.
